Denise's Social Column

The BBQ on Thursday 21st July, unfortunately was a wash out but 5 hardy souls showed up, Mick and Jillian, Carole Cockshott, Gail Algie and Pam Shea. Maybe we can try it again in the warmer weather.

The Family History Day at Belgenny Farm was a good day, we were in the Community Hall with a lovely open fire going, there was not a lot of people showing up, probably due to the weather but we sold $68 worth of books, better than the last two years and a few people interested in membership.

On Sunday 11th September we will be having a course on IRELAND. Please see me for bookings.

TOUR OF STATE RECORDS Thursday 6th Oct 2016 If you would like to come along please see me for a booking

DNA Research

DNA testing is a new tool for Family Historians. Some sites provide better service than others. I am including here several links to sites that you may want to try for a DNA test. If you have any questions on DNA testing please ask at the Family History Society meeting for people's opinion. These should not cost more than AU$200 per test. If you find the prices higher than this, I suggest that you ask members at the Family History Society for recommendations.
