Editorial

Hi to all,

Welcome to another edition of the Ghostbuster magazine..

In 2012 we are continuing to hold several courses: An Irish Research course, an NZ research course, an Aboriginal research course and an Asians in Australia research course. We are including a course on Find My Past, assuming that the library is able to obtain a subscription. Details are later in this magazine.

Please continue to visit our Family History room and the Local Studies room at the Library. Please also check out the library collections for Family History items. We are continuing to include new items as they appear.

Welcome to our new members listed below.

David Beddie and Ellen Smith

New Members

We welcome the following new member to the CDFHS.

Janet Hall

Situation Vacant

Would you like to become more involved with the work of the society? If so, we would like to hear from you.

Everyone who works for the society does so on a voluntary basis, with some giving just an hour or two each month, while others devote much of their free time to the running of the society.

We are always looking for volunteers.

Please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Marie Holmes at:

marieholmes@iprimus.com.au

From the President's Pen. . . .

I have only been your President for 8 months and in that time I hope I have done a reasonably good job. I have enjoyed myself very much and found this time to be very challenging and rewarding.

I am pleased to say that during this time I arranged to finalise all the paperwork involved with the updating of the R.S.L. Memorial Park Cemetery Book which Esma Hannah has been working on. Also, I have been in contact with Grant White, from the Library, to finalise the draft M.O.U., which is now in the hands of their Solicitors and only requires our signatures when it is returned.

Another item that I am pleased to be associated with as President is the Parramatta Female Factory Action Group Inc. Alex Hannah suggested giving this organisation a donation of $100.00, which has been done on behalf of our Society, but taking this a step further we have decided to join this Action Group to lend support in their endeavours to have this site Heritage Listed.

I would like to thank Pam Shea and the rest of the Executive and Committee Members for their much appreciated help and support. I would like to thank David Beddie and Carole Cockshott for their generous time and effort in running the various Family History educational courses at the Library. As these are for the general public as well as members they help to generate a great deal of publicity for our Society, with the hope that they may also encourage new members.

I would also like to thank Dennis Allsopp for printing the Minutes of our meeting each month at no cost to the Society.

In conclusion, I would like to take this opportunity to wish the incoming President a very successful year.

Denise Baxter
President CDFHS Inc.

Website

* Abandoned Communities

<http://www.abandonedcommunities.co.uk/>

Since the Middle Ages thousands of towns, villages, and other human communities in Great Britain have been abandoned.

Some places have been abandoned at a single point in time, while others have been gradually depopulated until there was no-one left. In some cases the forces of nature have made a major contribution to the abandonment, but more often economic and social changes have caused people to move away, or the decision of a powerful individual, organisation, or government has compelled inhabitants to leave.

This website commemorates all abandoned communities.

Websites of Interest

* Census of Ireland 1901/1911

<http://www.census.nationalarchives.ie/>

The household returns and ancillary records for the censuses of Ireland of 1901 and 1911, which are in the custody of the National Archives of Ireland, represent an extremely valuable part of the Irish national heritage.

All thirty-two counties for 1901 and 1911, searchable by all information categories, are now available on this site. Corrections and improvements will be ongoing. A small amount of material is missing from the site, and will be placed online as soon as possible.

* National Library of Wales – Welsh Wills

<http://www.llgc.org.uk/index.php?id=487>

Free access is now available to digital images of wills through the new online index. At the moment no digital images are available for Hawarden, Brecon or St Asaph pre 1660.

* England's Past for Everyone

<http://www.victoriacountyhistory.ac.uk/publications-projects/epc>

England's Past for Everyone was a local history project run by the Victoria County History between September 2005 and February 2010. Volunteers throughout the country worked alongside authors and researchers to produce a whole range of new resources. From a series of paperback books to learning resources for schools and an interactive web resource, the project's mantra was 'Bringing local history to life'.

* Founders & Survivors

<http://www.foundersandsurvivors.org/>

Founders & Survivors is a partnership between historians, genealogists, demographers and population health researchers. It seeks to record and study the founding population of 73,000 men women and children who were transported to Tasmania. Many survived their convict experience and went on to help build a new society.

Social Secretary's report

The last 6 months have been very busy for me trying to do the president's and social secretary's work, I have not been able to organize any outings for the first half of the year but will do that for the spring when it's warmer, a lovely river cruise etc, we do have a full program of guest speakers for the year with very interesting topics.

Our Educational Courses at the Campbelltown Library have been a great success, with the Irish Ancestry Course coming up on the Sunday 1st July at Library (this course is already booked out).

We also have coming up....

Sunday 12 August ...Ancestry.Com and New Zealand Course Family History.
(this is filling up fast)

Sunday 16 September...Aboriginal and Asian Family History Course.

Sunday 14 October...Find My Past. (This course is already half full)

Please book early to avoid missing out on a place. BOOKINGS ARE ESSENTIAL

All Courses will start at 10.30am till 3.30pm

Morning and Afternoon tea will be provided, please bring your own lunch.

Cost is $5.00 p.p.

Please contact Denise Baxter, Social Secretary at 4625 8612.for inquiries and bookings.

These courses are open to the public as well as members.

Denise Baxter,

Social Secretary.
