Editorial

Hi to all,

Welcome to another edition of the Ghostbuster magazine.

Thanks you for your continued support at this time, when we are not conducting any meetings or any other activities. We hope to be able to re-commence later this year.

Volunteers are not able to attend Campbelltown library at this stage. The Family History room has been temporarily closed due to the pandemic.

Welcome to any new members of the Society. We hope we can assist you in your researches.

We were hoping to have some courses this year. The September and November courses may eventuate but that will depend on the library being available.

We will continue providing this magazine, and the monthly Ghost newsletter. Copies of those are also loaded onto our website.

From the President's Pen. . . .

Hello Members,

I do hope you are all keeping well and safe. Since our last meeting in February things have been more distant. The library closed its meeting rooms and no one wished to be in the position where we could have been infected with this terrible virus with most of us being in that most vulnerable age group.

The library has made available the library edition of Ancestry free online to all library card holders.

The following are the steps to accessing the Campbelltown Library edition of Ancestry:

1. Logon to the "Campbelltown Council NSW" site
2. Scroll down to the greyed section and select "Libraries".
3. Scroll down to the "Popular links" and select the Yellow button named "Renew Your Books".
4. On the left of the page select "Campbelltown City Library".
5. Scroll down and select "Renew Your Books" again.
6. In the "User ID" box enter your "Library Card number".
7. Enter your "Birth Date" (ddmmyyyy) into the "Password" box.
8. Select "Login".
9. On the left of the page select "Ancestry Library".
10. Now do your research.

Our AGM will need to be deferred until we meet again. The library, open for meetings will be delayed until September or later depending on the restrictions still in force.

Hope to meet up with everyone soon.

Best Regards.
Robert Palmer

Herbert George Neaves - £10 Pom, 1925 – 1997 – From Jan Neaves

Just call me George.

I was born in Teddington, Middlesex, on Christmas Eve, 1925. As one of 13 children, I was probably not the Xmas present that my brothers and sisters were hoping Santa was going to bring. Growing up, I was a bit of a rascal.

In Summer I would earn pocket money by diving for coins people would toss for me into the Thames River. Those strong diving skills would prove important for my future survival.

Joining the British Navy at 19 in 1944, I was off to see the world in WW2. The "Swift ", my destroyer was 500 metres off Sword Beach, France after D-Day when a German mine exploded below. Luckily as gunner I was already on deck. After diving overboard I was able to help rescue the ship's doctor.

Following that sinking, I was assigned to Russian convoy duty where we were attacked by submarine, amid the snow and ice.

Fortunately I was transferred to the "Empress of Japan ", escorting Aussie troops back to Sydney. On shore leave with mates we met some young ladies in George Street. A whirlwind war- time romance followed and Grace and I were married in Newtown. Sadly, shortly after I had to sail away.

After the war ,Grace herself joined a ship full of war brides, sailing off on a grand adventure for "Old Blighty". Post war conditions in England meant initially she had to share a bed with her new mother in law. But I was desperately trying to return to Britain, via W. Australia and Pakistan, to be demobbed.

When Grace 's parents in Sydney posted her food parcels to England, my family secretly sold them off to the neighbors. With food rationing and housing shortages continuing, life wasn't easy but we were happy with the arrival of 2 healthy children.

Freezing weather and cloudy skies decided us to head for Sydney sunshine in 1948 to become £10 Poms.

The 6 week voyage on the "Oronsay" was an exciting, restful holiday. Our baby son even won "Most Beautiful Baby on Board ", scoring a huge toy koala.

On arrival we were sent to the Bradfield Park Migrant Hostel, where we enjoyed lots of fun and friendship. We were delighted to take our family to "The lucky country".

TRACKING MY 4X GREAT GRANDFATHER, PETER DUFF, 1774-1829 – From Jan Neaves

My ancestor Peter Duff was born in Ballinagar, Ireland about 1774. By trade an illiterate carpenter, he joined the British Cavalry and fought against the French in Europe. Returning home he fought his fellow countrymen in the Irish Rebellion, where he was wounded. In 1799 he became a Chelsea Hospital out-pensioner, which didn't stop him marrying an English woman. He and wife Elizabeth Ann Stafford raised several children, including sons John and James and daughter Ann.

In 1806 Peter took the opportunity to join the NSW Corps in Cork. The family set off on another great adventure in 1808 on the ship 'Speke', accompanying women convicts to Sydney Cove. On arrival they bought a house at 31 Clarence St., where daughter Eliza was born. In 1810 he transferred to the Veterans Corps and the family moved to the town of Windsor.

Although his arm was still injured, Peter was appointed in charge of the Government cattle herd. With 2 blocks of land near the river, he may have been able to raise animals himself. In 1817, Peter was caught in rising floodwaters but managed to save himself and his son by paddling to higher ground in a washtub.

Elizabeth gave birth to youngest son Peter Junior in 1814, but died 2 years later and was buried in an unmarked grave at St Matthews Churchyard, Windsor. Daughter Ann probably helped raise her little brother, 2 year old Peter, my ancestor. 8 years later she married convict Samuel Clift, ('Neptune 1818). They built a little stone cottage on a grant of 60 acres at East Maitland and raised 10 children.

Peter Senior was granted land at Jerry's Plains in the Hunter Valley, but that was settled by his older sons.

His headstone stands proudly in the park beside Newcastle's Christ Church Cathedral, one of only a few remaining from a large graveyard which the Council has demolished. I had been excited to discover it, but wondered why in Newcastle? Did he die in Newcastle or Jerry's Plains? It seems his daughter Eliza had been married there at the Cathedral 6 months before his death.

A few years ago I had come across a photo on the internet of an old stone vine-covered cottage labelled Peter Duff's cottage, but with no location. Did it still exist? Not likely, but where? Recently another descendent emailed me information that the cottage may still exist in Maitland. As he never remarried, it seems logical that in his old age Peter was cared for by his daughter Ann.

His younger daughter Eliza Eckford also had settled in Wallis Plains, at 'Pitnacree'. 'Britannica' on line informed me that the original name for Maitland had been Wallis Plains. So off to Maitland we travelled. At 1 Hay Street was 'Bridge House', an attractive 2 storey stone colonial home, recently sold, But right next to it, adjacent to the bridge was a tiny stone cottage that looked like a fairytale dwelling. It looked similar to the photo. Was it the original home of Ann and her husband, ex-convict Samuel? Was it where Peter Duff came to be cared for before he died? In the old photo I had seen years before it had been covered in vines. Apparently, before putting the property on the market last year, it seemed it had been spruced up.

Peter Duff, 4 x Great grandfather, I had tracked you down. Mystery solved.
