Would you like to become more involved with the work of the society? If so, we would like to hear from you.

Everyone who works for the society does so on a voluntary basis, with some giving just an hour or two each month, while others devote much of their free time to the running of the society.

We are always looking for volunteers.

Please contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Marie Holmes at:

From the President's Pen. . . .

Hello Everyone,

It's been a quiet year for our society with not much to report on, our library where we hold our meetings is undergoing renovations and although this has been a bit of an inconvenience with meetings having to be moved or cancelled it will be worth the trouble as the library is putting in a COFFEE SHOP, which I think will be a big hit with the library patrons, especial people doing their Family Research and needing a cuppa.

The courses that the Society has run this year have been very successful and will be continued next year.

We are running our usual Christmas Raffle this year with first prize a Gourmet Christmas Hamper, second prize Half a Leg of Ham and Two Bottles of Wine, 3rd prize is a beautiful home made Christmas Cake with various other prizes, this will be draw at our Christmas Party.

I look forward to seeing you all at the Christmas Party at Cataract Dam on Saturday 1st December, at 10.30am, with the meeting to start at 11.0am, and festivities to follow afterwards.

I'd like to wish everyone a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Denise Baxter

James Waterworth A Veteran Coachdriver

By Marie Holmes

James Waterworth was born in Parramatta on 22 September 1830. He was the son of Robert Waterworth and his wife Sarah Duggan. His father came to Australia on the ship Agamemnon as a convict and later became a sergeant of police. He died when James was only one year old. It seems that James spent his childhood being raised by Hamilton Hume. Hamilton Hume bequeathed James a coach that was originally bought in 1842 from Mr Campbell.

James was married twice. His first wife Mary Ann Pallier died in 1891 and with her he had eight children. Emma Scouler, his second wife outlived James. They had no children.

James Waterworth was the proprietor of a number of coaches that he ran between Campbelltown and Wollongong travelling via Appin and Bulli Pass. James had a “cunning little box.” In this he kept his personal belongings during the times of bushranging.

There are three significant times when he encountered bushrangers when he was driving his team. The first time was when he was returning from Wollongong. He had on board a sickly little man who had been collecting rentals in Wollongong and had £300 on him. When the bushrangers began to search the passengers, James picked up this little man and took him to the bushrangers saying, “You surely wouldn’t harm this poor sick fellow.” The bushrangers let him go.

However the story got around and the next time they held him up the bushrangers were not kind to James. They tied him up with his two passengers and took the horses away. James was angry and when he spoke his mind to the bushrangers, one wanted to bayonet him. However the other bushrangers admired the way he spoke up and left him tied to a tree. James worked at his ropes for an hour until he got loose and then freed his passengers. For many years the tree near Appin to which he was tied was called Waterworth's Tree.

James Waterworth had other adventures with bushrangers. On one occasion some of his grooms were molested. James suspected the bushrangers concerned were in the local area so he went to look for them and found them in a lonely place in the bed of a river. He noticed that they were well armed and that they looked dangerous so James just talked with them about ordinary subjects and then went away. However in the time he was with them he noticed that one of the men had a curiously misshapen foot. Sometime afterwards when he was in Sydney, James saw a man with a misshapen foot. He went to a policeman and pointed out the man and said he was willing to swear that the man was one of a gang of bushrangers. The police arrested the man who proved to be a bushranger..

He lived to be 96 years of age, dying at his residence Bonnie View in Campbelltown on 27 March 1926 and was buried in St Peter's Cemetery Campbelltown.

Member's Interest

My person of interest is my Great Grandfather William Henry WARREN, born 16 Nov 1867 in Billybong near Forbes NSW, his parents were William Henry WARREN and Christina RELTON, he married Frances Elizabeth HERBERT 8 June 1887 in Orange. Frances was born 11 Jan 1867 in Towrang, Goulburn, she died there on 29 Sept 1900, her parents were Daniel HERBERT and Sarah HITCHEN also from Goulburn.

The children of William and Frances were..

William b 1889

George b 1892

Frances May b 1893

Charlotte Lillian b 1894

Eva Kate Gordon b 1897

Ada Millicent b 1899 All born in Orange.

Their last child was born in 1899 in Orange but sometime between 1899 and 1900 they must have moved to Goulburn as this is where Frances dies.

This is where we lose William and the children I don't know if he went back to Orange with the children, my Grandmother ( Eva Kate Gordon Warren) said she was raised by an Aunt?? as the oldest was 13 and the youngest only one were they all fostered out to family ???

I would love to find William as I have know idea what happened to him.

Social Secretary's report

We have had a quiet year as far as outings go, one visit to State Records and the October Cronulla River Cruise, this has been my doing but next year we will have a few more, such as St Stephens Cemetery Tour and Archaeology in the Rocks.

The educational courses we have been running for members and the general public have been so successful that we are running 5 more next year, starting off with .. Sunday 17 March 2013 FIND MY PAST & ANCESTRY.COM and Sunday 19 May 2013 a talk on LANDS by Carol Liston.

We have had some very interesting speakers this year, talking on a wide variety of very informative subjects, I hope to repeat this next year.

The Christmas Party is coming up on Saturday 1st December at Cataract Dam and the meeting to precede the festivities.

I hope to see everyone out there, it's a good day, with lots of good food, good company and games, my favourite is Team Trivia.

I would like to wish everyone a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR.
